WELCOME TO OFLC!

We are pleased that you decided to join us in worship this morning. We hope you'll feel at home here, and God's presence! We have a few helpful notes for you on the service to do that:

All hymns are in the red hymnal in the pew in front of you, or under your pew seat. You can find them using the number next to the hymn in the order of service.

The bold text indicates parts of the service where the whole congregation is invited to speak together.

Communion is celebrated using small, disposable kits with a wafer and juice. We are currently celebrating communion together at the rail, but if it feels safer, you also have the option to take communion in your pew. The pastor or worship leader will give more direction at that time.

Offering is not required to be with us in worship today, but we greatly appreciate any contribution you wish to make! If you wish to do so, you can place it in the basket at the end of your pew, or in the plate at the back of the sanctuary. If you need assistance, a service coordinator will be happy to help you!

Here at OFLC, we don't have pre-scheduled worship assistants. We allow folks to help out as the Spirit leads them, and that includes visitors as well! If you'd like to take part in worship, please see Pastor Aaron or a service coordinator before the service and they'll be happy to involve you!

Acknowledgements:

- Portions of the Confession and Forgiveness liturgy were written as open source material by liturgists of the Disrupt Worship Project, <https://www.disruptworshipproject.com>
- All copies of music are from the Evangelical Lutheran Worship Hymnal, downloaded from www.sundaysandseasons.com, and authorized for use via copyright license.

WELCOME & INSTRUCTIONS

CENTERING PRAYER

Lord God, source of every blessing, you showed forth your glory and led many to faith by the works of your Son, who brought gladness and salvation to his people. Transform us by the Spirit of his love, that we may find our life together in him, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

You are invited to take a moment for reflection to prepare your heart and mind for worship.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Worship Assistant: Epiphany is a season in which we confess that Christ is manifest—clearly seen. Yet our indifference and apathy blinds us. Let us lift up those events and people where you are clearly present, but need our eyes and hearts opened to.

Pastor: We especially lift up the following events and people...(pastor names aloud)

Pastor: God of all mercy and consolation, come to the help of your people, turning us from our sin to live for you alone. Give us the power of your Holy Spirit that we may confess our sin, receive your forgiveness, and grow into the fullness of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another.

Gracious God,

We confess that we are mired in sin and cannot get free on our own. We have judged others based on skin color, sex, gender, sexuality, religion, nationality, ability, financial and social status. We have preferred the ease and simplicity of placing others into boxes to the complexity of getting to know one another as siblings. We have ignored your prophets and turned from your command to put you first and neighbor second. We have permitted the ends for which we live to become confused with the means by which we live. Forgive our ignorance. Forgive our weakness. Forgive our sin. May your love overwhelm us, your peace disturb us and your spirit move us so that we cannot help but do your will at all times and in all places, always glorifying your name. Amen.

Hear the good news! Jesus came to call us to repentance. Jesus died that we might be forgiven. Jesus was resurrected that we might know eternal life. In his name, your sins are forgiven. Turn towards God and sin no more.
Amen.

How Good, Lord, to Be Here!

1 How good, Lord, to be here! Your glo - ry fills the night;
 2 How good, Lord, to be here, your beau - ty to be - hold
 3 Ful - fill - er of the past and hope of things to be,
 4 Be - fore we taste of death, we see your king - dom come;
 5 How good, Lord, to be here! Yet we may not re - main;

your face and gar - ments, like the sun, shine with un - bor - rowed light.
 where Mo - ses and E - li - jah stand, your mes - sen - gers of old.
 we hail your bod - y glo - ri - fied and our re - demp - tion see.
 we long to hold the vi - sion bright and make this hill our home.
 but since you bid us leave the mount, come with us to the plain.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 62:1-5

The worship leader will provide instruction on how the lesson will be read

- 1 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet, till her vindication shines out like the dawn, her salvation like a blazing torch.
- 2 The nations will see your vindication, and all kings your glory; you will be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will bestow.
- 3 You will be a crown of splendor in the LORD's hand, a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
- 4 No longer will they call you Deserted, or name your land Desolate. But you will be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; for the LORD will take delight in you, and your land will be married.
- 5 As a young man marries a young woman, so will your Builder marry you; as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, so will your God rejoice over you.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

JOHN 2:1-11

The Gospel, according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

1On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, 2and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. 3When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine." 4"Woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My hour has not yet come." 5His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." 6Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons. 7Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim. 8Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet." They did so, 9and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not realize where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside 10and said, "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now." 11What Jesus did here in Cana of Galilee was the first of the signs through which he revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

This is the gospel of our Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.*SERMON*MUSIC MINISTRY/GATHERING OF OFFERINGS

During this time, if you wish to make a contribution to today's offering, you may do so by placing it in the basket at the outside end of the pew, and passing it to the inside of the pew, closest to the center of the sanctuary. Service coordinators will collect the offering and bring to the front at the conclusion of music ministry.

SHARING OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

We are privileged to have Kevin Reed provide communion to us, according to the tenants of the faith tradition he was educated and formed in. As ELCA Lutherans, we respect the theological commitments and traditions of our fellow Christians, and welcome them even when they differ from our own. More instruction will be provided on any differences and participating in this rite this morning.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Worship Assistant (L): Trusting in your grace, mercy, and love, let us lift up our prayers for the world, all of creation, and all people according to their need.

L: Holy God, during this season of winter weather we lift up those who do not have basic necessities of food, clothing, and shelter. Embolden our hearts to see and meet the needs in our local community, nation, and world. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

L: As our physical, mental, and social health hangs in the balance, let us remember all who suffer in mind, body, and spirit. We pray for those who care for those who suffer, especially those on the front lines—doctors, fire fighters, mental health counselors, and clergy. Let us remember to care for them also as they bear burdens many other do not. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

L: We continue to live in a world where injustice goes unheard—the cries of those mistreated simply because they are human, created and loved in God’s image. Let our baptisms be a reminder that we are fundamentally children of God, and may we speak out on behalf of those suffering injustice. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

L: We give thanks for the gift of your church, and for the gift of our community of faith. Help us to live out your calling and mission for us, being faithful stewards of what you have entrusted to us. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

L: Let us raise up our prayers, spoken aloud, or meditated within our hearts.

A brief pause to allow people to lift up personal prayers.

L: Let us now pray the prayer our Lord Jesus taught us.

LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father in Heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.
