

Our Father's News

Basking in the afterglow of Christmas Eve worship and the December season of Christmas, I find myself thankful for the blessings of the Rockford/Greenfield community and the faith community of Our Father's Lutheran Church. Please know what a blessing you all have been in my life and the life of my family. Thank you God's people!

As we approach the new year, I'm reflecting back on the past year's successes and failures and thinking about changes I'd like to make. Certainly, self-care is on my list of priorities: losing weight; eating better; and exercising more. I'd also like to spend more time with my wife and family. I'd like to continue to develop and grow as a leader. Finally, I'm interested in being more faithful and intentional in my relationship with Christ.

I'm wondering what God would say about my year? Was the way I lived faithful and pleasing to Jesus? Considering God's perspective can move us beyond our own selfish desires to share in God's kingdom—His desires.

God's sacraments create new possibilities and life: forgiveness, reconciliation, and grace in Holy Communion; and Baptism which makes us members of the body of Christ, the church. As the body we function best if we "...learn to trust God." To "learn to trust God," is a highly relational way of being and far different from belief—which is often more focused on how one thinks. To trust God is to be in relationship and to be changed by Him.

"Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.
(Isaiah 43:18-19 NIV)

How are you nurturing your relationship with Christ? Are there opportunities for improvement? What would a more committed life of faith look like?

Let's reconsider the baptismal responsibilities not only instructive for raising kids but a description of how a trusting relationship with God looks. I changed some of the language:

"As you receive the gift of baptism, you are entrusted with responsibilities: to live among God's faithful people, come to the word of God and the holy supper, learn the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments, read and hear the holy scriptures, and nurture your relationship with God in faith and prayer, so that you may learn to trust God, proclaim Christ through word and deed, care for others and the world God made, and work for justice and peace. Do you promise to grow in the Christian faith and life (Evangelical Lutheran Worship, pg. 228)?"

Pretty simple then, our responsibilities of faith include: Christian relationship, worship, continuing education, reading the Bible, nurture your relationship in faith and prayer, trusting God, proclaiming Christ through our words and deeds, caring for God's creation, and working for justice and peace. How are you doing in your faith journey with these responsibilities of faith? How would God say you're doing?

May this new year bring many blessings to you and us! More importantly, may we grow together in the Christian faith and life, growing closer in relationship to both God and one another.

Love,

"Then the disciples came to Jesus in private and asked, "Why couldn't we drive [the demon in the boy] out?" He replied, "Because you have so little faith. Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there', and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."
Matthew 17:19-20

"Building Christ's Community through Hospitality, Relationships, Teaching and Service"

As we wrap up our first year with a faith-based budget, it almost seems crazy that we came to the conclusion to build our budget based on our faith and not pledges. After all, we are talking about the finances of our church. But as Christ says in Matthew 17:20, even if we have "faith as small as a mustard seed...nothing will be impossible for you." Maybe it wasn't so crazy after all.

After the amazing boost to the General Fund in December 2012, our faith was tested in 2013. The numbers went further into the red as each month passed, and our surplus in the General Fund virtually disappeared by November. On the bright side, we have experienced 7% growth in giving to the General Fund and a 9% increase overall in giving through November. Although we never quite made it into the black, we have most certainly made new strides in stewardship and giving to support the work of our church. We spent 2013 heading in the right direction!

As we examine our first year of faith-based budgeting, it's helpful to reflect on our past to help inform the future. If we look back over the past five years, our church has generally operated in the red throughout the year, and often we have recovered by employing a special appeal and/or fundraiser. This year, we have intentionally refrained from doing either of those things. Why?

The intent of leadership has been to push growth, and at the same time, make it sustainable. How have we been doing that? First we prayed, listened and discerned where God said we need to direct our attention and resources. Secondly, we cultivated a closer relationship with you by telling you our story through quarterly Congregational Meetings, our monthly newsletter, the mid-year report, and other forms of communication. We're trying to grow our capacity to give, which will allow us to respond to the needs of the church and community without distracting your faith journey with financial pep talks. And ultimately, we trust that through our faith in God, He will see us through and provide us with what we need.

So what have been the main differences between faith-based budgeting and pledging?

At the heart of it, faith-based budgeting has allowed leadership to be intentional with how we plan to spend our financial blessings and, most importantly, stay centered on God. Our leaders have been able to focus without distraction on doing God's work, and not spending too much time and energy reacting to a budget number that ebbs and flows. It has also been life-giving to our programs and ministries. This is what faith looks like, and we are certain this is the kind of risk-taking that pleases God. We put Him first and the logistics second. We prayed and dreamed and discerned and took action to Build Christ's Community through Hospitality, Relationships, Teaching and Service.

Now it would almost seem crazy to go back to the way it was.

Blessings,

Jeff Miller

Congregational President

What is God calling you into?

God isn't calling me.

What if you just cannot hear Him?

Sometimes it is hard to hear. There is too much noise around us, our ears seem deaf or perhaps we just don't know the language or what to listen for. Like many of our conversations, we are often times not attentive with others, this is also true in our prayer time or in our Sabbath practices. What if we began by being present? Setting other things aside and giving our full attention to the conversation: listening for God, becoming aware of God's language and actively participating in the conversation. This only happens in community with others sharing and seeking together. God is calling us; we need to equip ourselves to hear Him. We need to be present to hear.

As we begin a new year, let us pray for presence, being fully aware in all areas of our lives of God's presence. Then let us join with others in community to build something deeply relational and faithful.

"Make me to know your ways, O Lord; teach me your paths. Lead me in your truth, and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all day long."

Psalm 25:4-5

In thankfulness and love, Cathy Jones

Remember the parable of the talents in Chapter 25 of Matthew's gospel?

"For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted to them his property. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them, and he made five talents more. ¹So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents; here I have made two talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I scattered no seed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. ²⁹For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' Matthew 25:14-30 English Standard Version (ESV)

Here talents refer to money. But the word talent is broader than money. It refers to a large range of things. If God has given you money-and he has given some to all of us-then we must receive it as a trust from him. If he's given us talents (some kind of special ability) then we must use that for him.

Last winter we conducted an adult education opportunity entitled, "Living Your Strengths." Those of us that were involved gained wonderful insights into our God given gifts...we conducted a personal inventory...we explored our strengths (not our weaknesses)...and searched our hearts through personal journaling and group discussion for a place to put our strengths to work in our church community.

We received VERY positive feedback regarding this adult education opportunity and are pleased to announce that we will offer it again this winter.

The books, "Living Your Strengths" have been ordered and should be here by the first week in January (there is a short, finding your strengths survey that needs to be completed prior to the beginning of the class.)

There will be a sign up sheet next to the church office for two available sessions once we've received the books. In the meantime mark your calendars with one of the following sessions:

- Sunday, January 19, 2014 at 8:15 am (8 sessions)
- Thursday, January 23, 2014 at 7:00 pm (8 sessions)

God gives us talents in various forms so that we can be fruitful and multiply them for the work he has given us to do on his behalf. Our response to God's grace ought to change our lives. Christ didn't die only to save our souls. He was victorious over death so that we might know how to truly live and also find great joy and purpose in that life.

Our Father's Foundation News

It has been a good year for the investments of the foundation. With the stock market doing well so have the Thrivent funds that the foundation foundation have invested in. With the goal of growing the foundation money so that we can grow our charitable giving, there has been some success. Throughout the year the biggest source of revenue is the annual membership drive where "building blocks" for the "foundation" can be purchased. What clever Lutherans!

Please keep the foundation in mind for your charitable giving. Gifts in memory of, in honor of, etc. are greatly appreciated and thoughtful.

May peace and God's love fill your heart and your home in this New Year.

LIFE & GROWTHCOOKBOOKS STILL AVAILABLE FOR $10.00

Thank you to everyone who purchased cookbooks and jam during the holidays. Funds go to Women's Ministry and Lunch Box Fever.

Here's a good recipe from Rachel Ray.

Potatoes with Cumin

2 lbs potatoes (any kind), cut into small cubes (do not need to peel)
1 tsp cumin seeds (not ground)
2 Tbsp olive oil or vegetable oil
1 small sweet onion, chopped
1/2 cup frozen green peas
Salt/pepper to taste

Boil potatoes until barely tender. Add oil to sauté pan over medium heat. Add cumin and onion and sauté for 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Drain potatoes and add to onion/cumin mixture. Sauté until lightly brown. Add peas, sauté briefly. Salt and pepper to taste. This is also good with some cooked crumbled bacon added.

Remember if you have a recipe to share, we would be glad to print it. Just give it to Diane or Michelle.

Happy New Year! Thanks be to God for all the delicious food He has provided!

"It is more blessed to give than to receive." Acts 20:35

Our Father's Church is able to support a multitude of faith building programs with funding provided by the General Operating Fund. The church also supports worthy causes and needs that arise with funding partially from the General Fund and partially from the benevolent giving of the congregation.

Contributions to the General Fund are higher than last year, but the expenses to support the increase in ministries and programs also grew. The shortfall between the contributions and expenses has been covered by the General Fund surplus we started off with in January 2013.

Our faithful gifts to the general fund help our church do God's work in the world.

	General Fund Jan. – Nov. 2012 LAST YEAR	General Fund Jan. – Nov. 2013 THIS YEAR	Percentage Increase over 2012
Contributions	$196,663	$210,094	7%
Expenses	$202,922	$229,754	13%
Net of Contributions & Expenses	-$6,259	-$19,660

November 2013 - Memorial & Special Gifts (these gifts are not included in General Fund)

- Gifts totaling $502 to our Community Thanksgiving Dinner
- Gifts totaling $446 to WELCA Thankoffering (Women of the ELCA)
- A gift of $629 to the Banner Fund
- Gifts totaling $55 to assist Farhana Khushid
- Gifts totaling $10 to MOPS
- Gifts totaling $50 to Riverworks Foodshelf
- 43 Operation Christmas Child boxes
